Dear Dale,

Won't you join our dais.

The New York Friars Club is delighted and honored to announce that the Guest of Honor at the 1999 legendary Celebrity Roast will be New York's own Jerry Stiller. Our Roastmaster will be Jerry's "son" on the Seinfeld show, the very talented and funny Jason Alexander. Once again, this years Roast will be videotaped for broadcast by Comedy Central. The event will take place as a formal dinner on the evening of October 1st at the New York Hilton Hotel.

The Friars Roast began ninety-five years ago with the "greats" of show business directing their sharpest barbs at the Guest of Honor. Jerry has requested that we invite you to be a guest on our distinguished dais, be introduced for a bow and enjoy the food, the wine and the laughter. The Roast is the entertainment industry's most traditional and irreverent comedic event and promises to be a memorable evening.

The following are some of our most recent Honorees and Roastmasters:
