Dear Mr. Bellack:

To say Dale Grand's performance at our recent Annual Fall Conference was a hit, would be a gross understatement. I must admit that I had mixed feelings, initially, since I had never attempted to join forces with a seasoned entertainer. I also didn't know what kind of reaction I would get from the conference participants.

It is always hard to come through with imaginative programs and forms of entertainment for conferences and all I can say is that Dale's act is going to make next year's planning very difficult.

I must commend you on representing an excellent talent and one who really was the highlight of our Conference. The Conference participants are still walking around quoting a lot of the material Dale used that evening which lets us relive the night. He was phenomenal!

Sincerely,

Charline J. Glowitz
